The New York Sephardic Jewish Film Festival's (NYSJFF) 23rd Anniversary Edition.

Lights, Camera, Action! The NYSJFF showcases contemporary voices steeped in the history, traditions, and rich mosaic culture of Greater Sephardic communities.

This year's NYSJFF includes premiere film screenings, intriguing stories, evocative documentaries, powerful narratives, Q&As with filmmakers, as well as special honorees, dignitaries, and diplomats. The ASF Pomegranate Awards, sculpted with love by the renowned Baghdad-born artist Oded Halahmy (Pomegranate Gallery in Old Jaffa and Soho), celebrate Sephardi excellence in the arts.
